

Course Description

Comprehensive Exam in Developmental Psychology

Aim of the course

Aim of the course:

The comprehensive exam tests the students' integrated knowledge regarding the course of Developmental Psychology 1 and 2. A topic list – including the issues processed in the course of Developmental Psychology 1 and 2 – is available in the semester including Developmental Psychology 1.

Learning outcome, competences

knowledge:

- knowledge acquired in Developmental Psychology 1 and 2

attitude:

- to integrate knowledge acquired in Developmental Psychology 1 and 2 skills:

- to prepare and represent the topic
- to answer related questions

Content of the course

Topics of the course

- Developmental Psychology 1: Cognitive development
- Developmental Psychology 2: Socialization

Learning activities, learning methods

- exam

Evaluation of outcomes

Learning requirements, mode of evaluation, criteria of evaluation:

requirements

- exam

mode of evaluation: grade 1-5

criteria of evaluation:

- content and understanding of the topic including the subtopics
- the structure of the topic
- the quality of answer for related questions

Reading list

Compulsory reading list

- reading list of Developmental Psychology 1
- reading list of Developmental Psychology 2

Recommended reading list

- Not compulsory/proposed reading lists of developmental psychological courses.