

Course Description

Special course

Aim of the course

Aim of the course:

The courses, which belong under this umbrella course provide deep knowledge on a special field of developmental and clinical child psychology.

Learning outcome, competences knowledge:

- deep knowledge on a special field of developmental and clinical child psychology.

attitude:

- Respect of the patients and their relatives
- Considering ethical standards of clinical psychology
- Viewing childhood mental disorders in a complex bio-psycho-social model
- Formation of scientific attitude to a very popular topic which seems to be „everybody’s competence”
- Using current findings of evidence-based research and scientific standards in suicide research skills:

- deep knowledge on a special field of developmental and clinical child psychology

Content of the course

Topics of the course

- See above

Learning activities, learning methods

- Lecture, paper presentation

Evaluation of outcomes

Learning requirements, mode of evaluation, criteria of evaluation:

requirements

- All students have to present one publication
- Students can miss a maximum of 3 classes.
- exam.

Bibliography, additional materials

- Actually published papers on the topic of the course